Alan Harper
Partner/ Barrister & Solicitor

Experience:

More than 30 years after joining the legal profession, he continues to thrive on negotiating and closing the deals.

"You start right at the beginning and, when you see major projects come to fruition, you get an enormous amount of satisfaction from having overcome the numerous hurdles involved," he says

Specializing in often large and complex property projects, Alan's legal knowledge is bolstered by his accounting background.

Alan specializes in property development and subdivisions and is also sought after as a cooperate adviser on operational, structural and legal issues.

John Sheddan
Solicitor

Experience:

John was raised in West Otago on the foothills of the Blue Mountains on a 3rd generation family sheep farm. He was until recently working in Queenstown where for a number of years he provided commercial and property services to local and foreign clientele including the purchase of land at Jacks Point.

At the start of 2011 he and his family relocated back to West Otago for the succession of the family farm and to raise the 5th generation. He is now working with Bannermans in Gore, another well-established Southern entity with a long local history serving the South.

He welcomes any enquires regarding prospective purchases.
